The Worthy Educator Launches Future Ready Schools with Javeria Rana

WASHINGTON, DC (4/2/26) -The Worthy Educator, a mission-driven nonprofit community dedicated to mid-to-late career educators working to have impact and build legacies that inform and transform the future of education is proud to announce a new exclusive feature: Future-Ready Schools with Javeria Rana.

“This new feature addresses the vision for transforming education in practical, implementable steps, fully research-based and practitioner-tested,” shares Walter McKenzie, founder of The Worthy Educator. “Javeria Rana is a strong proponent of our Principles of Educator Agency and Efficacy, a contributor to our Roadmap 2031 project, and twice a contributor to our journal, Legacy: Transformation in Action. She brings passion and perspective to the work to which we are all committed to accomplishing, preparing our children for their future.”

Javeria Rana is the Director of Academics at Unique International Educational Services (UIES) in Lahore, Pakistan, overseeing more than five-hundred schools, ensuring that quality education reaches thousands of students, always looking for ways to improve teaching methodologies, curriculum design, and leadership in education. She founded Café Learning, inspired by the World Café Method to dismantle traditional barriers, empowering learners and educators to reimagine the future of knowledge-sharing.

“In addition to her strong educator credentials,” McKenzie explains, “Javeria brings a global view of education, which we value very much at The Worthy Educator. It’s easy to fall into the American education echo-chamber and miss the bigger picture of what’s at stake. Society is functioning beyond borders, continents and oceans, with opportunities to collaborate with people everywhere. Javeria models this simply being her wonderful self.”

This new feature launches today with seven inaugural pieces: Leading Future-Ready Schools in the Age of Artificial Intelligence, From School Improvement to System Transformation, Why Women Will Redefine Educational Leadership, Why Education Reform Fails Without Teacher Capacity, The Future of School Leadership in a World of Continuous Change, Multilingual Classrooms and the Future of Literacy Education. and What 500 Schools Taught Me About Education. You can view the entire lineup and keep up with new content on its official site at theworthyeducator.com/javeriarana.
